Note:
 (1) The acts and encumbrances shown in the certificate are those discovered with reference to the description of properties furnished by the applicant. If the same properties have been described in registered documents in a manner different from the way in which the applicant has described them transactions evidenced by such documents will not be included in the certificate.
 (2) Under Section 57 of the Registration Act and Rule 137(i), persons desiring to inspect entries in the registers and indexes, or requiring copies thereof or requiring certificates of the contents of the registers and indexes, should make the search themselves, when the registers and indexes will be placed before them on payment of the prescribed fees.
 a) But as in the present case, the applicant has not undertaken the search himself, the requisite search has been made as carefully as possible by the office; but the department will not be held responsible for any errors in the results of the search embodied in this certificate.
 b) And as in the present case, the applicant has made the requisite search himself and as the acts and encumbrances discovered by him are shown in the certificate, after verification by the department, he will be held himself responsible for the omission in it of any other acts and encumbrances affecting the said properties not discovered by the applicant.
